Social-Emotional Training

S.L.A.T.E. provides a seasonal social-emotional, peer-integrated training program for children with Autism Spectrum Disorder ages 3 to 18 years. The parent/professional designed program teaches skills necessary for children to maximize their potential.

Children enrolled in the program are divided into small groups by age, interest, and ability. The groups are led by persons knowledgeable about ASD. These group leaders may be teachers, speech pathologists, psychologists, counselors and ASD trained inclusion assistants.

The summer program incorporates typical peers who become mentors to the children with ASD. Activities are designed with a focus on social-emotional skill building and include fun outings to local parks and other recreation areas throughout the community.

Parent Education

Quarterly classes are offered to families and friends of children with ASD free of charge! The classes held during the S.L.A.T.E. parent meetings are fun and informative. Some of the topics may be:

- Keeping your Children Safe
- Nurturing & Empowering Siblings
- Dealing with Ongoing Grief
- How to Prepare for an IEP or IFSP
- Estate Planning for Families
- And more!

Community Education

Children and families with ASD will be able to attend and participate in activities throughout their community with the support of Inclusion Assistants through the Summer Program. Inclusion Assistants are trained to help children successfully participate in social activities throughout their community. These qualified care providers are trained by S.L.A.T.E. to provide services to your child.
